

GEOGRAPHIC INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Thomas S. Nasuta, Chief
(410) 225-4450

Geographic Information Systems was organized in 1989 to provide technical assistance to State and local governments in the use of Geographic Information Systems (GIS). Assistance relates to socio-economic information, as well as natural resources and land use. This unit maintains an up-to-date electronic base map of roads and related features with street names, address ranges, and point locations of every property in the State.

RESEARCH & STATE DATA CENTER

Robert F. Dadd, Manager
(410) 225-4450

Formed in 1980, the Research and State Data Center provides for the development of data bases to assist in planning for the overall growth and development of the State. The Center provides information from decennial censuses and is concerned with historical and projected data on population, housing, employment, personal income, business establishments, parcels, and school enrollment. The Center works to improve access to and use of statistical data from the U.S. Census Bureau, the U. S. Bureau of Economic Analysis, and other federal and State sources.

45 Calvert St.
Annapolis, MD 21401 (410) 974-2117

Established in 1985, the Pricing and Selection Committee for Rehabilitation and Employment Programs reviews contracts and establishes fair market prices for goods and services provided to State government agencies by sheltered workshops located in Maryland (Chapter 735, Acts of 1985). Sheltered workshops contract with individual State agencies to provide janitorial, food and micrographic services, and to manufacture supplies, such as snow stakes for use on State highways and toiletry kits for prison inmates.

The Committee consists of six members. Four serve ex officio: the President of Blind Industries and Services of Maryland; the Secretary of Budget and Fiscal Planning; the Secretary of General Services and the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services. Two members represent Maryland Works, Inc. (Code State Finance and Procurement Article, sec. 14-106).
